Dear Clergy and Parishes,

Greetings of peace to you as the month of January soon gives away to February. Hope is in the air and spring will soon be here!

On the 11th of February, we celebrate the World Day of the Sick. This day brings to mind the apparitions that took place in Lourdes, France. It also brings to mind the mission little Bernadette was given many years ago to build a shrine for the sick, elderly, and vulnerable.

We are far from Lourdes but we can continue to bring hope to our sick by showing them merciful gestures of love. When we offer a thousand-and-one services: a comfortable environment, nourishment, time to listen to stories and life experiences, offer forgiveness, or assist those in need in any manner, we are showing God's mercy and love. Being present with someone who approaches the final call from this world is truly a moment of blessings not only for them, but for us.

This year, the day after Ash Wednesday is the World Day of the Sick. It provides us with a special opportunity to begin our Lenten journey by stretching out our hands and hearts to those who are in need and who may be close to us.

Again, the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan (CHAS) has prepared a package to help us celebrate this feast day in our parishes. We have included the package with this letter, and I encourage you to carefully review the material, as it will help facilitate this task. As well, it would be good to take this occasion to read and share our Holy Father's message and to collect names of individuals you would like to pray for and place them in front of the Altar for a special blessing.

We all know someone who is suffering through health issues, who is elderly or vulnerable, and needs our prayers and concern. Therefore, I encourage you to make this day a special day, and in our celebrations may our preparations, liturgies, and homilies express our mercy, our love, and our intentions.

May the healing hands of the Lord, through the intercession of Mary and St. Bernadette, teach us of the Mercy the Father has for each one of us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
